

THE PARADOX OF THIS TROUBLING REALITY

Humanity has reached a point of no return on its destiny and a break with its "sleeping" and it is AWAKENING.

The main task of each of us is to "wake up" from a long inner sleep. Since time immemorial, this sleep has been maintained by certain monarchical, state, political, social, religious and moralistic structures and certain forces that belong to other worlds or frequencies...

Our collective and personal consciousness has been engulfed in a state of exile from "The Source of Life" and we remain attentive only to our most ephemeral and daily desires and needs. The main task of each of us is to "awaken" from this inner sleep.

For most of us, and for countless generations, we have been considered wild animals and had to be "caged" and then "trained" to submit and obey a Machiavellian codification in order to satisfy the wildest passions with an infinite illusory power of an elite who has granted themselves ALL power to the point of positioning themselves as goddesses and goddesses.

But why?

This elite lied to us and hid another reality of true Human nature. A reality that would have allowed us to get out of this illusory "hypnotic cage".

The paradox is that we have accepted this reality of being locked in "a cage" from the moment of our conception until our "death". Leaving this "cage" became a sacrilege and an offense to the gods and goddesses of an invisible elite but always on the lookout for our slightest emotions, more or less refractory to their authorities, at the risk of lightning crushing us with their anger, and this for our so-called good.

What has been hidden from us!

From generation to generation we have been subjected to "believing" in truths that were false. "These beliefs and non-beliefs" have kept us in ignorance of our True Nature of Being.

We are sparks of Divine Light that animate us and animate each creature from the smallest to the largest element. The reality of the world is not matter, but the vibrations of the Divine sparks, what we call energy today.

Everything is energy. From the coarsest to the finest matter... such as our thought and what we call the soul (Self) and pure Spirit (I AM).

The greatness of humans is to have the ability to feel these energies, to master them, to change them and to orient them in this or that direction. Each human has within him the strength to perceive all his own vibrations and to harmonize them. Each person is thus "responsible" for himself, for his balance and therefore above all for his thoughts.

Since time immemorial, different approaches have been shared in a more or less just way and with more or less noble intentions to modify the vibrations of our body, mind and soul through our thoughts... Most of the thoughts and rituals that have been "proposed" are intended to keep us in a "hypnotic cage." Fortunately, certain thoughts and rituals have the function of freeing us from this individual and collective "hypnotic cage".

The goddess of Justice Maat has just sounded our "maat-in awakening" to wake us up individual by individual, family by family, community by community, people by people.

Humanity is in the process of involution-evolution and this natural evolution presents itself as one of the manifestations of the cosmic movement of return called in a certain milieu as "teshuva". Such a process of return requires the existence of the transcendence to which it aspires to return. Evolution is the result of the force of the cosmic will, of the "longing" that seeks with it to "return to the source of reality," to the life of life (ascensional process). It refers to "returning to God of the Lord." Secondly, it means "to turn around, to turn around, to turn away from one direction of life to choose another"

. The human being has been endowed with the possibility of changing the course of his life and thus constitutes the highest expression of human freedom and as a kind of human concretization of the Divine.

Now you understand why the elites do everything to keep us in an "individual and collective hypnotic cage"!

This elite will use every means at their disposal to prevent you from waking up.

This elite activated the "GREATEST COSMIC GENOCIDE.

They simply need a "SPIRITUAL GENOCIDE".

They want to cut you off from your Divine connection with the AM-O-UR SOURCE, THE I AM.

They simply want to possess your body and soul by transforming your Divine Spark into a "black light" and thus make you believe that you are joining the ranks of the legions of angels... "fallen".

This elite will push friends, brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers and children towards the "valley of shadow". Many people will fall into the endless abyss of illusion because of a lack of "discernment". It is important to know that Discernment is a gift of the Holy Spirit.

Many are those who are waking up and will slide into a more Luminous dimension.

This elite encourages disrespect for oneself and others by imposing violence, revolts, confrontations, wars, pornography, pedocrime, drugs, linguistic, legal and religious inconsistencies by various means. This activates incomprehension, fear of the other, hatred towards him, rejection and paranoia.

The elite knows very well what this is up to and that it is important that individuals cannot go out and regain the FREEDOM OF BEING of the I AM (I AM-O-YOUR).

This is THE PARADOX.

Any paradox creates a "PAT" effect which means that there is no loser or winner but a lot of collateral losses. It is a state of "standby" and psychic and social "neutrality". This is what forces us to start again from the starting point a new part, another story. It's a change of scenery by repeating the same story in a new setting, with new actors with new strategies that are more Machiavellian than the previous story. In short, it is the history of our humanity that spins endlessly on the "karmic wheel".

It is now the Time to set the clocks back in line with the natural Divine inner rhythm.

This is the "Point ZERO".

This is the "BLACK HOLE" or the "WHITE HOLE".

By "choosing" to stay in this "hypnotic cage" with the illusion that it is life and truth, it will open an interdimensional portal called a "Black Hole". This colossal force that emanates from it will inevitably attract the individual(s) to slide into another dimension and sink into a world of archetypal darkness and shadows and a repetition of a "Neverending Story".

If you "Consciously choose" to get out of this "hypnotic cage", a new interdimensional portal will open and which is called a "WHITE HOLE". I assure you that it will be "troubling" because we are definitively turning our backs on the unspeakable archetypes that have "created and formatted" us with all the consequences and results that have been generated. Thus we pass to a reality of higher dimension and vibration and of Pure LIGHT which is the manifestation of "I AM-O-YOUR", the "I AM".

This is the process of Elevation or Ascension from Consciousness to Superconsciousness.

It is a New Archetype that is taking shape. It's a New Beginning. It is a New History for Humanity.

The collective awakening that was unleashed without the knowledge of the Machiavellian strategies of the elites, activated the "DIVINE MISSION" to bring us out of the "shadows" and to raise the scattered divine sparks and to free the DIVINE LIGHT from the realm of illusion and collective schizophrenia that tyranny and oppression represent on an earthly and historical level.
