

THE BUTTERFLY EFFECT

Humanity has reached a point of rupture and no return in its "Destiny" towards a more enlightened and conscious Collective and Individual Consciousness. But... It must choose who it will serve: the archetype of the old world that is out of breath propagating a false and hypocritical propaganda of a supposedly evolved world, whose facts and traces of atrocities have stigmatized and sullied our long and perilous journey as individuals and Humanity... Then, this Humanity will taste the "bitter fruit" of degradation and corruption.

Or else, Humanity, by a jolt caused by an asphyxiation of these fundamental freedoms, will come out of its "tor-peur" and shout loud and clear: STOP! ... THAT'S ENOUGH! ... This will cause a shock wave that will generate a tsunami of a huge wave of consciousness that will sweep away everything in its path and nothing will be able to stop it. It's called: THE BUTTERFLY EFFECT.

This Butterfly Effect is only the natural and automatic consequence of a so-called "chaotic" dynamic that simultaneously presents the following two characteristics: the phenomenon of sensitivity to initial conditions... of inconsistencies and permissive and totalitarian laws, and a strong recurrence of the phenomenon over a more or less long period of "time". The presence of these two properties leads to extremely disordered behavior, rightly described as "chaotic".

For centuries, the established order has oriented at best or at worst a compartmentalized schema of women, men, humans and humanity. In its desire for "service" and the protection of animal and primary nature, this authority has established codes, ordinances, directives, laws, rituals and castes, which has locked the Human Being from remaining in ignorance of its true nature as BEING.

By formulating and dictating writings that have stigmatized all forms of opposition or healthy revolts against this authority, Humanity has "devolved" and has foolishly plunged into the hells of its archetypal "shadow". Technology has improved our living conditions but in return has "defiled" our Soul, perverted our reasoning and neutralized our "discernment" in the face of the oppressor who wants us to be slaves to their excesses and chimeras.

What you need to understand is that you don't have to understand everything to be in your right place. What you need to know is that the Intelligence of the Heart is where your Right Place is. It is time to feel and listen to the whisper of AM-O-YOUR (I Am Light) that emanates from your Great Consciousness (SELF) and to let yourself be embraced and loved by IT. SHE is JOY, SHE is PEACE, SHE is FREEDOM, SHE is the purest thing in You.

Take back your Rights, allow yourself to BE yourself, Be that "I AM who I AM who I AM ».

This is your Life Path...

Only you have the authority to evolve there and to discover all these riches and gifts that Life offers you. You are the "good seed" (Light) that grew with the tares (shadow). The harvest has begun. Radiate your Light, Sang your Joy, Manifested your Freedom. Dare to be YOU and UNIQUE as women, men, children, authentic as Humans and Divine manifestations as a Spirit who lives through the Soul the Human Experience.

It is time to take a step back and differentiate yourself from past and future archetypes that survive by laws, dogmas, beliefs, non-beliefs, injunctions, blasphemous and slanderous rhetoric, from its charlatans who threaten you with anathemas by pushing you into the arms of the "mother illusions".

It is time to wake up and look face to face at the shadow world that has shaped you and kept you in ignorance and judgment of all that stands in its way.

It's time to Say Out Loud: ENOUGH... STOP.

It is time to trans-mute this world and bring it to the passage (not of the wise) from the "bridge" to a Higher Consciousness, an enlightened Humanity of authentic and free women and men.

YES, it will require courage, audacity, persistence in your actions.

YES, you will have to choose who you serve, the shadow or the Light, the archetypes or your Unique and Luminous Nature that keeps you alive.

The collective egregore that has formatted our humanity and traced deep valleys of suffering by keeping us in an illusory freedom called slavery, has reached its breaking point. It cries out its despair, it gesticulates the ghosts of conspiracy theories, it harasses you like a hyena, it bites you like a viper that injects its venom in hope after a long agony, it will swallow you without qualms and thus feed its own life with darkness.

Anti-venom: it's YOU

THE AM-O-YOUR that radiates from your Heart.

The AM-O-YOUR which means "I AM LIGHT".

I AM what I AM.

I pursue what I AM.

I AM what I pursue.

It is time to listen to the sound of the drums of your Divine Heart.

Trust him, he will never betray you.

Remained humble in the expression of what You ARE.

And trust your DIVINE Bond.

Make a Heart to Heart between YOU and the Eternal.

D.M.

The next two texts contain knowledge and ancestral wisdom that allows us to continue to "walk" towards this "step-wise" of the old world that is dying and the potential new world that is offered to All of Us. I recommend that you meditate on the content of both texts. They will know you have the strength to take a step closer to what YOU ARE: I AM-I AM.

The last part of the sharing is taken from a book... written by Alain Ouacknin, p:419:

Words are your wings, speak, fly! Cross Space and Time, break the chains of a story that does not belong to you and that has no right to hold you back...

Remember that women and men, although they must die, are not born to die but to innovate, to open themselves to birth, to renewal, to the expansion of consciousness.

Because you were born, you are condemned, you are condemned to be free... Never forget it!

You have within you the strength to dominate evil (shadow), always.

If you fall, get up!

Never despair... Great is the power of hope.

The following text is taken from a book: The Master of Enlightenment, Orot Hagodech, 1:64.

Discover the logic of your Heart and the feelings of your reason (beliefs and non-beliefs)!

Feel the vibrations of the Source of Life that are deep within you and above you and all around you.

The Love that burns within you, make it rise to its powerful root, extend it to the whole soul of all the worlds.

Look at the lights,

Look inside the lights

Go up and up, for you have mighty strength.

You have wings of wind (Spirit),

Noble eagle wings...

Do not deny them for fear that they will deny you...

Look for them and immediately they will find you...
